Room For Your Research and Development

Who Are We?

The Freiburg Research Services (FRS) encompasses the EU Office, the International Graduate Academy (IGA), and the Science Support Centre (SSC).

We provide researchers of the University of Freiburg assistance in all matters regarding research funding. Doctoral and postdoctoral researchers receive support with career development.

Our services place special emphasis on the sensitive transitional phases between the various academic career stages, starting with the final stage of studies.

We also support students planning to study or complete an internship abroad.
