Who Are We?

The International Graduate Academy (IGA) is part of the Freiburg Research Services (FRS).

Our work is geared toward a central objective: providing you good conditions for working toward your doctoral degree at the University of Freiburg. We follow this objective by developing quality standards for doctoral studies. Also, we provide individual support – with our transdisciplinary services.

Our advising services are designed to help you reflect on your goals, identify your strengths, and make well-informed decisions. Our qualification programme includes courses and workshops to help you develop your skills for a career in and outside of academia.

Here is an overview of our services:

Information on

- the paths to a doctoral degree
- the general conditions of doctoral studies
- the doctoral phase
- funding opportunities

Advice & Support

- individual advising for doctoral candidates on all questions concerning doctoral studies
- individual advising on securing funding for your dissertation project as well as for travel grants and publication allowances
- proofreading service for doctoral candidates who are not native German speakers
- ombuds process for resolving conflicts between doctoral candidates and their supervisors

Qualification

- transdisciplinary qualification programme with around 80 courses and workshops a year
- career advising focusing on areas outside of the university
- writing support focusing on optimising text quality and writing style
- language courses and language tandem
- coaching and mentoring programme

Scholarships
